

Responsibility or Obligation?

Name: _____

Per: _____

Scenario	Responsibility or Obligation?	WHY is it a Responsibility or an Obligation?
1) There are a lot of stray animals on the street. You decide to pick up a stray cat you see wandering through your neighborhood and take it home.
2) About 605,000 of Florida's 2.6 million students are in middle school (grades 6-8).
3) Mark, a realtor in Springfield, Florida, receives a summons for jury duty. He serves on a jury for two weeks listening to testimony about a robbery that took place and determining the verdict for the case along with his fellow jurors.
4) On his 18th birthday, Marshall went online and registered for the selective service. This means that in a crisis requiring a draft, men would be called in sequence determined by random lottery number and year of birth.
5) Shauna did not like a policy that was recently passed by the state legislature. She decided to create a petition supported by members of her community and included a copy of the petition in a letter to her Representative.
6) Tax returns are due by midnight April 15th, so long as April 15th is not a weekend. John forgot to complete a tax return and thought it really was not a big deal - he could just wait until next year.
7) Mariselle wakes up at 5:00 a.m. to go to the polls for the national elections so she can vote before she has to go to work.
8) Jackie is going to the grocery store and puts her 2 year old in a car seat in the back seat of the car.
9) Laeloni spends her Saturday mornings volunteering doing crafts with seniors at the local senior center.
10) Juan doesn't think his neighborhood association is running efficiently. He decides to run for president of the association in order to correct problems in his neighborhood.
11) Jacob was charged with shoplifting from a local store. He will be serving a 100 hour sentence volunteering to pick up trash in his community.		